TESTIMONIALS

Eileen Green, Vesta Corporation, Director Learning and Organizational Development

Jen thoughtfully prepared an EXPERIENCE – through energized storytelling and levity, Jen shared skills and concepts that inspire, empower, and transform relationships. We didn't just sit and listen – Jen moved us, we were on the edge of, and out of our seats, engaging with each other in what can be best described as pure joy. Jen's address provided intangible tools our team have already begun to apply in work & personal life. Jen didn't stop there, she also shared with us a slew of tangible leadership resources.

Jen is a testament to what it means to go above and beyond – she not only delivered on what we asked, she exceeded our expectations. If you need a speaker with a proven track record that doesn't just deliver a canned speech, and you want someone who's kind, witty, fun, professional, with energy for days, book Jen!

Edgar Olivo, CEO The Red Cross

Jen Buck's ability to combine powerful leadership insights with high-energy, immersive delivery immediately set her apart the first time I experienced her work. What truly makes Jen remarkable is that her message doesn't stay in the room—it transforms you. Her perspective on leadership, purpose, and impact helped shape my own career path and inspired me to expand my work into humanitarian efforts. She challenges people to think bigger, lead with intention, and take action in meaningful ways. With decades of experience and a track record of reaching over a million people, Jen brings both credibility and authenticity to everything she does. But beyond the accolades, it's her ability to change lives—including mine—that makes her truly deserving of this recognition.

Joseph Phillips, MBA | Director of Quality Improvement at The Salvation Army

Thank you so much for your Creative Leadership Camp. All in attendance ranked it the best. On behalf of the Leadership of the Salvation Army's Social Services of Greater New York, Thank You for a very valuable two days. Jen made our two days! She was, by far, the very best Speaker we have had in my past 6 years here at The Salvation Army. Without fail, everyone in attendance came to me to thank me for this great experience and mentioned her name as a Superstar that they all want back with us soon. The content was so appropriate to our needs and we all learned new and exciting skills to enhance our management of our nearly 1,200 team members that we work with daily. I had many opportunities to watch our leadership team of 32 people these past two days. I have never seen a group of 32 people so captivated and all paying such close attention to a speaker before. Jen was magical. We will be doing this again and you will be my only telephone call.

Samira Sayegh-Rivera, Yaamava' Resort & Casino

I have had the privilege of watching Jen for over 15 years, and in that time I have seen her transform every room she walks into. Jen has a rare and extraordinary gift — she breathes life back into leaders. When you hear her speak, you feel it. That undeniable energy that makes the hair on your arms stand up and reminds you exactly why you do what you do.

Jen is a masterful, deeply relatable storyteller. She doesn't just deliver a message — she makes it personal, memorable, and actionable. Leaders leave her sessions re-energized and ready to show up differently for their teams. She is the kind of speaker you never forget — because she doesn't just inspire you in the moment, she stays with you long after you've left the room. Jen would be an exceptional addition to any stage.

I will never forget my favorite quote I heard about Jen --one of my clients handed me his card, asked if she was available for a keynote on a certain date, and then said, "I am convinced that she can do anything"! Over the years working with her, I have to agree 100%! She is always at the top of her vocation, a great partner to work with and just a joy to be around. I recommend Jen to any of my clients and just wish I could clone her and have about five more to work with! There is no limit to what she can do!

I have worked with Jen on numerous past occasions. Jen brings an unparalleled level of expertise, contagious energy and passion when working to help organizations develop and transform their business. She has an almost natural ability to motivate her audience and provides tools that can be immediately implemented to get results. Most impressive is the positive transformation that visibly occurs to staff when they attend one of Jen's courses. An amazing motivational speaker.

I just wanted to take a few moments to say that Jen was AWESOME! The enthusiasm and energy she brought to the training were both appreciated and well received by the group. Professionally, she was everything we needed, wanted and more. On a personal note, as I think of my own growth and development, she was everything that I aspire to be. I was very impressed by her sense of humor and versatility. She was absolutely phenomenal and a delight to observe. I thought I would simply be there to observe, but I couldn't help it....I had to engage!
