

J E N B U C K

Award-Winning Keynote Speaker,
C-Suite Veteran, Master Certified Trainer,
Bestselling Author, and TV & Podcast Host

Jen Buck began the first decade of her career in a startup helping to launch a billion-dollar global and award-winning brand while in a leadership development training role. Having now been a professional Keynote Speaker for 25 years, she's given over 10,000 programs impacting more than one million people throughout her tenure. As a two-time bestselling author with seven publications, hosting a television show that was seen in 50 countries worldwide, as well as a podcast that highlights female leaders who are changing their corner of the world, Jen is committed to amplifying great leaders and helping them get into the rooms where decisions are made.

Currently, Ms. Buck is the Chief Operating Officer for an organization and has led three U.S. Congressional campaigns as the Chief of Staff, along with being a former Chief Communications Officer. She has also founded a nonprofit organization that helped 50,000 people, and she is on the leadership team for one of the largest women's organizations in the country, leading 15 Directors and 30,000 people daily. Jen Buck understands leadership and has an impressive track record in the highest roles; she isn't just talking about leadership from stages, she's doing it every day.
